Wistful Wave Crochet Blanket

Design by Crochet 365 Knit Too

Size:

You decide! The stitch pattern is a multiple of $16 + 3$ stitches. So chain any multiple of 16 to start and then ADD 3 stitches to that.

Materials:

- Worsted weight yarn. Pattern is adjustable for other weight yarns, but it is best to be consistent (use all one type of yarn). The Blue Sample alternates 3 cakes of Caron Cakes Lovely Layers in Iced Mint and 2 cakes in Sugared Blueberries. The multi color sample is made with scrap worsted weight yarn from my stash.
- US H8/5 mm crochet hook, or size that works with your chosen yarn
- Tapestry needle and scissors

For a 50" Wide Afghan, using Worsted Weight and a H hook:

Chain 179 (or a multiple of 16 + 3 more stitches for preferred width)

R1: dc in 4th ch from hook, *dc in next 5 ch, [(dc 2 tog) twice], dc in next 5 ch, [(2dc in next chain) twice]. Repeat from * across chain. End with 2 dc in last chain. Ch 3 and turn.

R2: dc in 1st st, *dc in next 5 st, [(dc 2 tog) twice], dc in next 5 st, [(2dc in next stitch) twice]. Repeat from * across row. End with 2 dc in last st. Ch 3 and turn.

Repeat row 2 until afghan is 65 inches or desired length.

If using cake yarn, alternate cakes until all 5 cakes are done.

If using scrap yarn, work 2 rows of each color for a striped pattern to get a similar look to the multi-color striped sample.

Weaving in Ends

Weave in ends. If making a scrap afghan with multi color rows, there will be a lot of ends so you might want to do this every so often so it's less of a task at the end of the afghan.

Finishing and Options

I prefer wave and chevron style afghans to be finished 'as is' with no added border. However, you could add a single crochet border, increasing and decreasing to follow the wave pattern on the wavy ends and evenly spacing single crochet stitches on the sides.
